LITURGY OF THE WORD 19th Sunday Ordinary Time

Reading I: Wisdom 18:6-9

You made us glorious by calling us to you

Responsorial Psalm 33

Happy the people the Lord has chosen as his own

Reading II: Hebrews 11:1-2ff

Abraham looked forward to a city founded and built by God

Gospel: Luke 12:35-40

See you are dressed for action and have your lamps lit

Be ready, be prepared; for what? If Jesus was to arrive in your life today, how would He find you? Remember, Jesus accepts us as we are - He does not come to condemn.

How do you feel you can better prepare yourself to encounter Jesus. Do you make time for prayer, to be aware that he does come to us - ever day and in so many ways.

* The kneelers make a terrible clatter! Lets try and keep a quieter atmosphere. * How often the hymn finishes before the collection does! Be prepared! * The cry chapel is for tired, distracted or bored wee ones. Other adults ought be in church with the congregation and leave the cry chapel for kids.

EARTH OVERSHOOT DAY 28th July this year – illustrative calendar date on which humanity's consumption of resources for the year exceeds Earth's capacity to regenerate them.
A circular economy is essential; support

FIX THE FOOD SYSTEM. With millions more people going hungry in East Africa because of war, drought and the pandemic, it's critical that we rethink our current global food system and reverse the aid cuts in the East Africa region. Full details and petition to Foreign Secretary; J & P Campaign of the month.

NO MORE OIL AND GAS DEVELOPMENTS.
The new Jackdaw gas field has UK govern-

FUNERALS While Fr Jim is on holiday it will be more complicated to arrange a funeral. Please come to Morning Mass, Monday - Friday at 10.00am and speak to the visiting priest about arranging a funeral.

1. Funerals ought to be in the parish where the person lives or worships; we cannot take funerals from other parishes because people want it here. 2. Non-religious music, readings or symbols are not appropriate. 3. We will ensure the funeral is as personal as possible but Eulogies are not delivered at Mass. 4. Orders of Service are discouraged. A memorial prayer card is appropriate to remember the deceased
