RCIA becomes more intense in Lent. Our candidates will meet the Archbishop at the Rite of election on Feb 26. Each Sunday in Lent there will be a ceremony for RCIA at 11am Mass as they draw close to Easter.

Adult Education & Reflection Each Tuesday in March there will be a session on the great Lenten gospels; The Transfiguration, The Woman at the well; The Man born blind; The raising of Lazarus

On-line retreat with the Ignatian Spirituality centre. Click on and register to follow this each day. We'll have books for those who prefer.

Devotions Stations of the Cross, Taizé prayer and times of adoration will be scheduled weekly to accommodate other commitments; watch out!

Valentine's dance - Feb 18th. You won't get a better bargain anywhere - tickets available now for just £5. Music by Cha Cairns, dancing, licensed bar and a chance to catch up with all the chat! If you've never been give it a go!

Tuscany Trip is closed (for now) October 5th - 12th. Facilities for single travellers is limited to 7 people (with supplement.) There will be a meeting (and a vino!) in March. Based in Marina di Pietrasanta and visits to Lucca, Florence, Pisa, Cinque Terre

TUSCANY

Fire & burglar alarms now installed in all 3 buildings. We'll be in touch with key holders to give you info. hanks to Brian Martin for co-ordinating this. The cost is £7,000 to comply with legislation.

WEEKLY BULLETIN

RCIA This year we've the largest number (12) of candidates in RCIA programme. The "Year A" gospels are so intense that we plan to make an unforgettable Lent/Easter; Rite of Election - 26th Feb.

Parish Team meeting postponed. We want to replace people stepping down. We encourage anybody interested in serving on this team for 1 year; a younger person? We need the team to reflect the wide mix of nationalities. Please help!

Eucharistic Ministers need post-covid revising. Anyone who'd like to step down email Donna Nichol this week. dnichol1978@outlook.com

Gift Aid. Maureen our administrator is revising Gift Aid system. If you donate cash you will get envelopes & a new GAD number next year. You MUST sign up in the porch to request these.

Children's liturgy not on Sunday Feb. 19th because of school long weekend

Children registered for sacraments ought to be at Mass with the family. Disappointing attendance.

Website Go to our webto access our Facebook page, our photograph gallery, news & pictures.

Livestreaming stood down & rested while Fr Jim away. Join us again on Ash Wednesday

Funeral information go to sacraments page on our website. You'll find a form, information & advice.

2nd collection Feb 12th. (parish renovations) 4

Parish sacramental registers are being repaired & rebound; we've no access to them for 6 weeks.

St Aloysius Garnethill is now fully re-opened.

Seasons for Growth In response to the number of bereavements in the parish we would like to offer support to those grieving. We hope to do this through Seasons for Growth, a loss & grief education programme which builds resilience and promotes wellbeing. The programme is delivered by trained companions and we would like to have someone, within the parish, trained to deliver the programme. (we are operating in conjunction with Maryhill Ruchill Parish) Full details at www.seasonsforgrowth.org.uk Please email parish if you're interested in finding out more.

Save our bees. Bees are essential for our survival pollinating much of what we eat and sustaining eco-systems, yet the UK government has authorised use of bee killing neonicotinoids. Support Greenpeace's petition to ban these chemicals. J&P Campaign of the Month.

Win. Don't Bin. 25-30% of food produced is lost or wasted, 8-10% of total greenhouse gas emissions; follow Food Waste Action Week, March (6 - 12) on how we can make the most of our food, cutting waste & bills. www.wrap.org.uk. CST Sessions. All Duncan and Mary's presentations from our sessions on ecology, option for the poor & peace are now on our website with our feedback.

Save the date! Pancake Tuesday 21st Feb. Our final session with Duncan &

Mary; CST & Global Poverty. We'll end with cheese n wine before start of Lent!

Our Foodbank collection hamper is still in porch, emptied every Sunday evening and will gratefully accept anything you can gift, large or small! . Please keep in mind those who need you!
