Sunday 31st Ordinary Time (A)

LITURGY OF THE WORD Sunday 31 Ordinary Time

Reading I: Malachi 1:14b-2:2b, 8-10

You have strayed from the way and cause others to stumble.

Responsorial Psalm: 131 Keep my soul in peace before you, O Lord.

Reading II: 1 Thessalonians 2:7-9, 13

We handed to you the Good News and our whole lives

Gospel: Matthew 23:1-12

They do not practice what they preach

This weeks Gospel highlights humility

Humility is important because it sets things in proper perspective. If we are full of pride, it skews how we see the world others. God wants better for us. It is when we clothe ourselves in humility that our hearts can see things clearly. We recognize we are not above anyone, rather, we are all unique and equal before God. Humility blesses us to walk in freedom, no weight of competition. With a humble spirit we be a blessing to others open to being blessed in return.

Cry for peace in the Holy Land. SCIAF urgently appeals for an immediate ceasefire in the ongoing conflict in the Holy Land; join the call for the UK Government to do all it can to help end this war, secure humanitarian support and build lasting peace. www.campaign.sciaf.org.uk/cry-for-peace.

Protect the global oceans. Call on UK government to ratify the Global Ocean Treaty to protect 30% of the world's oceans (60 nations need to make it law), support a full ban on deep sea mining and end new oil and gas developments. Easy to action petitions at www.greenpeace.org.uk/take-action.

Spotting the signs of modern slavery. Take the quiz and find out if you can recognise the signs of modern slavery that takes many forms including human trafficking, forced labour and forced child marriage; quiz at www.antislavery.org/slavery-today/spot-the-signs-of-slavery.

Good news! Holyrood's Equalities, Human Rights and Civil Justice Committee has called on the Scottish Parliament to sanction concessionary bus travel for asylum seekers; see recommendations of Committee at www.scottishrefugeecouncil.org.uk.

Recycling household waste in Scotland. In 2021/2 36% of all kerbside waste collected was correctly recycled, however 52% of residual waste (the general bin) was found to be made up of waste types that can be recycled at the kerbside. More to do! Report at www.zerowastescotland.org.

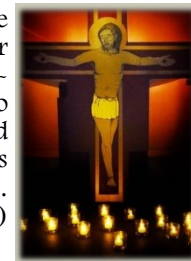

Our local foodbank Thanks you all that every week you fill the hamper for the foodbank. Your donations are gratefully received - thanks for keeping in mind the shame that there are hungry people in our community!
